

John Hutchcroft Seminar

February 24, 2024

1-5pm

Life Protection Seminar

Open to All Styles

Register Here

Mr. Hutchcroft is a student of Martial Arts. He trains not just for his style, but for the old Okinawan Village Karate concept. Village karate was the Art of Life Protection - not sport. Sport is an excellent opportunity to test your skills and nerves, but it's a whole different thing when you look at your karate through the eyes of life protection.

Join us as we follow Hanshi and train as the Okinawans did using classic kata movements (bunkai) with the intent of life protection.

This is not style specific, but a concept based seminar. Come and expand your horizons!

All adults, and serious youths (ages 12 and above), are welcome.

Hanshi John Hutchcroft, 9th Dan, Matsumura Shorin Ryu Koepfel Ha, began training in 1968. He was promoted to Shodan in 1972 by Mr. John Black.

He competed on the United States Karate Association circuit in Kata, Kumite & Kobudo. In June 1980 Hanshi Hutchcroft was recognized for his excellence and was inducted into the Trias International Society Hall of Fame.

Mr Hutchcroft is also the Founder of the Okinawan Village Karate Association
